- Why does the company need to care?
- How does this goal fit in versus other priorities?

Incentivize Employees to Care

• Opportunity or threat

- Organizational change effectiveness
- Influencing factors
- Personal values and motivators

Make the Happy Path the Easy Path

There is nothing wrong with a reactive approach. But, a proactive approach can't be a derivative of cost, it should be part of the #design, #strategy, and #provisioning process in the engineering teams.

Empower Teams to Create Change

• Culture change is hard and takes time

• Get senior leadership bought-in and communicating

• Incentivize employees to care

• Make the happy path the easy path
